In a few months time, I went to see the Turin doctor for a second time. His examination was similar to the one on October 18, 2016 and it began at 8:00 AM. She noticed my condition, and she began to interrogate me about my sexual practices in the weeks before the examinations, not using a questionnaire but carefully questioning me. Once again, she was silent for a long time. It was curious to me to know her reactions and interpret them. At the end of the process, she said she did not feel any more symptoms of venereal disease, neither the first one, nor the second one. The only evidence she had that I had recently had sexual intercourse was the presence of Chlamydia. I was the only patient she had detected such pathology. The time was 3:38 PM. I waited for a few minutes, then I asked: "What do we do?" The doctor said: "We do a pregnancy test." I knew it was the right thing to do. While waiting for the result, the doctor asked: "Did f678ea9f9e
